
Tolmie Is Asked To Explain Relief Talk

Mackenzie and Hanbury, Speaking in Vancouver, Criticize Premier's Course on Unemployment

Canadian Press
Vancouver, July 15.—Premier Tolmie was sharply criticized by Vancouver's two federal Liberal candidates on two counts at a meeting yesterday evening in the Grandview Theatre.

Issue was taken with the Premier for his week-end assertion that he had made formal representations to Ottawa for unemployment relief and for having credited his government with putting into effect last session a road policy designed to meet the unemployment situation.

Hon. Ian Mackenzie, Minister of Immigration, and Liberal candidate in Vancouver Centre, charged the Premier had wired Ottawa last February in regard to unemployment at the request of Mayor Webb of Winnipeg, without first taking the subject up with the Legislature, although it was in session at the time.

He also said the roads policy now in effect had been conceived by the previous Liberal Government. He admitted having opposed it at the last session, because, he stated, it was of too extravagant proportions.

Ottawa last February, why the Premier had not stood for the right of the province? "Was the Premier satisfied," he asked. If unemployment aid had been needed then, it had been needed every minute since, Mr. Hanbury added.

Mr. Bennett, Conservative leader, had been faced with an election without an election issue, he continued. Therefore Mr. Bennett had sought the aid of the Conservative Premier of British Columbia and Saskatchewan and Mayor Webb of Winnipeg in an effort to embarrass the Prime Minister on the question of unemployment.

He charged that both Mr. Bennett and Premier Tolmie were seeking to manufacture votes for the Conservative Party out of the misery of the unemployed.

QUEBEC VOTERS HEAR THE VIEWS OF BENNETT

Sherbrooke, Que., July 15.—Hon. B. Bennett, Federal Conservative leader, continuing his election campaign tour, addressed a meeting here yesterday evening and later left for Three Rivers, where late this afternoon he is to speak before re-entering Ontario to address several meetings.

In his speech here he dealt with tariff and other topics.

He expressed his opposition to tariff policies of the Liberal Government as affecting the textile schedules. In this very city reduced production, he claimed, was evidenced. Near London, Ont., nine woolen mills had been closed, he said. Why did not Canada supply her hosiery requirements? he went on. Japan, employing girls at twelve cents a day, was selling stockings at eighty cents a dozen, he said. "Do you see where that leads to?" Mr. Bennett asked. "It means closing up our mills, throwing our men out of jobs and buying the products of countries with low standards of wages, or seeing to it that our own Canadians get a decent living wage and produce their requirements in Canada."

He went on, "The reason for unemployment in the textile industry is because we have permitted unfair competition against Canadian production."

Mr. Bennett said the King Government had collected in 1929 more taxes from the Canadian people than in any other single year, except one, in the history of the country.

A parade preceded the meeting.

PLUNKETT URGES MORE PROTECTION

Candidate Promises It to Consumer and Workingman as Well as Manufacturer

"Blasting Way" to Trade Endorsed By J. H. Beatty as Right Policy

D. B. Plunkett, Conservative candidate, urged higher protection for everybody at his meeting at Stanley Hall yesterday evening.

Speaking with him was J. H. Beatty, M.P.P., who came out with the declaration that Mr. Bennett had been right when he said it was necessary to "blast a way through" to increasing trade.

"Trade extension never came with apologies nor through coaking," Mr. Beatty said.

He declared that twenty-one woolen mills had closed down in Canada and others were working on half time.

CHEAPER TOYS HURT

Mr. Plunkett said that in working for cheaper toys for children by cutting the tariff on children's wagons, sleds and similar toys from 7 1/2 to 5 per cent, the government had caused a hardship on the Hiker Manufacturing Company.

Now, he went on, the Liberal Government was adopting a policy of higher protection where manufacturers were suffering from unfair competition.

PROTECTION FOR ALL

"The Mackenzie King administration now seeks to adopt protection in a semi-protective way," continued the Conservative candidate. "Do you believe in a political sinner turning penitent on the eve of an election?"

"Of my own leadership, Bennett, I say that we can believe he will keep his word. He spoke straightforwardly in favor of protection, for the manufacturer, the workingman and the consumer, and this protection would be made a real factor and put on the statute books of the country."

"My political life I have ever tried to make no promise or statement that I could not carry out. I have often been pressed by those who say Plunkett, you stand for this and that; why not say so? But I will not say or promise anything unless I know that I can carry it through. I want no better endorsement than that."

URGES TECHNICAL EDUCATION

Mr. Plunkett argued for technical education and technical training grants to the provinces.

"If we train our youth we need fear no nation, for they will have everything it takes to make their way," continued Mr. Plunkett.

IMPORTANT NATIONAL PROJECTS

Projects of national importance to Canada have been turned aside by the Liberal regime without regard to how necessary these were for the growth and prosperity of the country. National health insurance has been so treated, the national highway plan and many others.

"On the other hand, Mr. Bennett stood fairly and squarely in favor of these projects as necessary for the development of the country. On the highway plan, he would say that in Canada would be hard this coming winter, and that a network of highways from coast to coast in Canada, which would have to be the expenditure of $10,000,000 in British Columbia, would have been both a necessary work and a most welcome relief. The high-ways would have been a great understanding between east and west and for the creation of that better knowledge and regard of Canada as a whole from which would grow the national spirit."

NATIONAL HIGHWAY

"We did not have to detour with our country because we had men at the head of the country who were not afraid of who knew how to act. Why do we have to detour with our roads? When the cost of a national highway was so small, why didn't Mr. King accept it? He would have been a better Canadian if he had. He said it would require a change in the B.N.A. Act, but he had no hesitation in changing the B.N.A. Act one week or so before the election in connection with the return of the natural resources to the provinces."

NO REMEDY OFFERED

"What is Mr. Bennett's policy? He does not tell us, but he says that it will not be unemployment insurance. I hardly imagine his financial and industrial supporters would stand for this. He hints at a national road policy and it seems to me that he has stolen the idea from the election platform of Mr. Herbert Hoover. It does not seem that Mr. Hoover's plan has proven much of a success for all well-informed sources agree that the American unemployment situation is worse than ours."

Producers are told "never mind how it is to be done, accept Mr. Bennett's word for it, the problem will be immediately solved as soon as he is returned to power." The truth of the matter is Mr. Bennett has no solution for the unemployment problem. He best all he proposes to do is to concentrate the surplus unemployed in camps for the unemployed.

"I am not mistaken, Mr. Bennett is gambling on the chance of the serious situation of the country before he becomes his duty to call together his first parliament," he charged.

SUDEN WORRY

"The aspect of this matter that disturbs me most is the sudden interest taken by the British Columbia Provincial Government in the unemployment problem. Premier Tolmie, Minister of Labor Mackenzie and Minister of Public Works Lougheed, all suddenly develop an interest. They assume that this has been worrying them since February last and that they have been especially interested in public works projects or the unemployment problem."

"This is most interesting to me. I thought I and the member for Fernie were the only members in the House who were worried by the unemployment situation. If members of the government were very successful in hiding their feelings from the rest of the members of the House."

"It will also be interesting information to the unemployment delegation from Nanaimo. They had a definite appointment with the Minister of Public Works, but without explanation or apology he ignored the appointment, leaving the Minister of Labor to meet the delegation and carelessly explain that he had no money to spend and must take it up with the Minister of Public Works."

"I pleaded with the Government on two occasions, on the floor of the House and in committee of supply, to

Geo. S. Pearson M.P.P., Denounces Government's Lack of Employment Policy

"Disgrace That Unemployment Dragged Into Election Campaign" Nanaimo Told

Special to The Times
Nanaimo, July 15.—A well-attended meeting was held yesterday evening in the Elks Hall in support of G. H. O'Halloran, M.P.P., the principal speaker, stated that in 1923 Canada had an adverse trade balance, but thereafter Canada had annually exported more than she had imported.

Unemployment was chiefly due to the wheat market situation and stock market crash, Mr. Pearson considered, pointing out that the Dunning budget was going to re-align Canadian trade to enter to the Mother Country and ignore the United States. The effect was already being felt. England had initiated the shipping test of eighty-five per cent. Canadian wheat and fifteen per cent. English wheat.

Canada had the lowest percentage of unemployment in the world, only three per cent. Recalling that General A. D. McRae wanted to bring in 300,000 immigrants at a cost of $300,000,000, Mr. Pearson asked: "What would we do with all those people at the present time on the prairies?"

"The Conservative Party find the record of the Mackenzie King administration, and their policies for the future as outlined in the Dunning budget, too strong a platform to storm. They therefore endeavor to ignore a splendid business record, attempt a dog in the manger policy, and attempt to draw the attention away from the fine record of government by playing upon an unfortunate condition of unemployment existing in many parts of the Dominion," Mr. Pearson said.

"The Conservative Party charged that employment was due to the trade policy of the government and claimed that Canada should follow the trade policy of the United States. They are ignoring the fact that the States are at present, in a worse position than Canada in the matter of unemployment. The Minister's policy is showing us less favorably than Canada and in her manufacturing industry has shown a decline in the number of persons employed year after year since 1923."

STRIKING CONTRAST

"From 1923 to 1927 her manufacturing industries paid $1,600,000,000 less in wages than her manufacturers received two billion dollars more for their goods. During this same period Canada's manufacturing industries have year by year employed more persons, at an increasing amount of wages. Conservatives ignore the fact that during the same American industrialists and politicians have been continuously quarrelling over the correct course to follow in their trade attitude to foreign countries," Mr. Pearson pointed out.

DISGRACEFUL COURSE

"Finally we have the spectacle of our Provincial Government coming to the aid of the Federal Conservative party by claiming they have been worrying about the unemployment situation since last February, at which time they claim to have made representations to the Federal Government and they undertook very large public works programs in order to relieve unemployment."

"In my opinion it is a disgrace that unemployment should have been dragged into this election campaign as a party issue. It is the greatest evidence of weakness on the part of the Conservative party. They are not sincere, they are trying to play upon sentiment in order to gain political favor on July 28. This is the kind of attitude which makes thinking people disgusted with politics and politicians."

"No government on the face of the earth has yet formulated a practical policy for elimination of unemployment."

COUNTERS LOUGHEED

"The Minister of Public Works says the Government undertook a large road programme anticipating the unemployment situation. I was present at almost every session of the House and committee of supply. I can only recollect one occasion upon which road appropriations for unemployment were mentioned. That was when the maintenance vote for roads was being passed. I asked if the $15,000 in this vote was all this district would receive in the unemployment situation then developing. The Minister replied that if anything was provided for the purpose it would have to come out of the loan vote for roads."

"I asked if he would give Nanaimo special consideration to extent of at least $100,000 and he said he would take it under advisement. Approximately $5,000 to $7,000 is all that has been allowed this district out of this vote and this one of the worst of the unemployment districts."

"On June 30, the Minister of Public Works wrote me: 'The whole situation of unemployment is now under review. You will understand that it will require special funds to meet the situation as capital expenditure cannot be made for relief and that the only monies now available are those from the district vote.'"

LAST MINUTE AID

"In light of what I have said, is it not an extraordinary position for our Provincial Government to take to endeavor to place blame upon Federal Government? I say without hesitation that it is nothing but a last minute effort to do something to help the Federal Conservative Party over a rough place of road. It is an action which should be resented by every voter in British Columbia," Mr. Pearson protested.

He considered unemployment to be the most serious economic question the world has to deal with to-day, not to be solved by party politics. Immediate provision should be made for unemployment relief. If the need still exists, provision would be made in some measure by whichever party was in office.

An adequate system of insurance against temporary, seasonal and permanent unemployment should be adopted, and steps taken to set up a permanent organization, provincial, federal and international, to study fundamental economic weaknesses which lead to unemployment.

"This problem is not the responsibility of any one government or any one party. The party which tries to make it a party or sectional issue is antagonistic to interests of all wage-earners," he concluded.

UNEMPLOYMENT SPEAKER

Dr. J. L. Dougal of Vancouver, addressed the meeting in the unavoidable absence of Duval Donaghy, E.C., and in a very speech dwelt upon the issues of campaign. The speaker ridiculed Mr. Bennett's claim of 64,000 Canadians leaving for the States, and stated the Mackenzie King Government had done

TARIFF BASED ON BUSINESS PRINCIPLES

Canadian Press
Whitby, Ont., July 15.—The Liberal Government, ever since it assumed office, has followed a tariff policy essentially based on business principles, declared W. H. Moore, Federal Liberal candidate in this riding here yesterday evening.

"The Dunning budget," Mr. Moore continued, "has almost taken the tariff out of politics. Admittedly it would be impossible to take the handling of the tariff away from the people's elected representatives; for then we would not have true democracy."

Mr. Moore declared the countervailing duties provision in the Dunning budget were "examples of sound common sense."

give consideration in a definite and permanent way not only to the question of unemployment relief but also to the question of seasonal unemployment and consequent inadequacy of annual income of great numbers of workers in British Columbia. If the members of the Government were even interested in them in no way showed their interest.

"I pressed the Minister of Mines for some action to help unemployment through slackness in coal trade. He promised to call a conference between transportation companies and coal operators, in order to make an effort to arrange for more use of coal by transportation companies. On May 29 that conference had not been called. The oil tax was passed ostensibly to help the coal trade; to date it has not been put into force."

Dr. Dougal referred to 42,000 old age pensions being paid, and said the Conservatives had wanted to postpone for another year. He told of the rise of Mr. Dunning from an immigrant boy to Minister of Finance, and asserted the future of Canada rested in the hands of the Mackenzie King Government.

Castrol Oil Chief Arranges Trip For Canadian Winner

Boss Farquharson of Vancouver, winner of the Lord Wakefield trophy for model aircraft at Ottawa last week, sailed for England on the Empress of Scotland from Quebec on Wednesday, July 9. He will be Canada's only representative to compete on July 19 with other model aircraft prize winners from Great Britain, Australia, South Africa and other parts of the British Empire. At Ottawa it was found that the models made by Canadian boys did not conform exactly to the British regulations. After winning the grand prize therefore, Farquharson at once set to work to design a new model to meet English regulations. He has worked night and day on these plans and proposes to actually construct the model on board ship while traveling from Quebec to England. The entire cost of the trip is being defrayed by Lord Wakefield of Hythe, who is also the donor of the costly sterling silver trophy. Lord Wakefield is head of C. C. Wakefield and Company Limited, producers of Castrol Motor Oil.

S. S. KRESGE'S NEW STORE WILL OPEN THURSDAY

Twenty-four Units Now Doing Business in Dominion Will Be Increased to Thirty-two

Local Store Will Form Nucleus of Coast Chain; Represents Large Investment

The S. S. Kresge Company's new store at the corner of Fort and Douglas Streets, will open for business at 9 o'clock Thursday morning. The local unit which represents an investment of close to $500,000, will round out the company's national organization and will form the nucleus of a Pacific Coast chain. Assuring, as it does, keener competition in the field of low-price merchandising, the advent of the internationally known S. S. Kresge stores to this city is of more than usual interest.

As elsewhere in Canada, it will be the policy of the company to make its Victoria unit a distinctly community store "participating in local affairs, and offering at all times the best obtainable selection of merchandise, with courteous and helpful service."

It is two years since Kresges entered Canada. In that period, under the aggressive leadership of W. C. Fisher, the company's managing director in the Dominion, twenty-four units have been opened. The programme for 1929 included four stores in Toronto, three in Montreal, two in Quebec City, and stores in Ottawa, Brantford, Windsor, Peterborough, Kingston, Kitchener, Sault Ste. Marie, Port Arthur, Port William and Winnipeg. This year in the east, Kresges have opened an additional unit in Toronto and one in Montreal, and have entered Hamilton and Stratford. Last month they opened a Middle West unit at Regina, and they will follow this with stores at Lehigh and Saskatoon. Two other branches will be opened in Montreal, and their Pacific Coast chain will be extended later to Vancouver and New Westminster. By the end of this year it is expected that the company will have a total of thirty-two stores in Canada.

The Kresge investment in the Dominion will be even more substantial than is indicated by the number of retail units. In practically every case the store properties are, or will be, owned outright by the company, and in a large majority of cases new buildings have been, or will be, erected to house these stores. For example, it is stated that of the nineteen units opened last year, only two were in reconstructed premises. The other seventeen were all new buildings, erected to comply with Kresge requirements.

LOCAL HELP

It is the Kresge policy in every store to employ the sales force locally. The same policy applies in Canada which prevails in the company's 600-odd American units, in the matter of paid vacations for all employees after a year with the company, Christmas bonuses, rent rooms, and so on. As far as possible, store managers are Canadian-born. The managing director, Mr. Fisher, is a native of Ontario. O. R. Kenzie, manager of Victoria store is a native of Moncton, N.B., and was formerly manager of the St. Hubert Street branch, Montreal, having been associated with Kresge organization for the last seven years. With a price range of 5c to 25c, a wide variety of merchandise is available. Each store has twenty-seven departments, and the full range of goods on sale runs to four or five thousand different items.

WOMAN SAILS FOR ARCTIC

Ottawa Wife to Accompany Husband on Two-Year Trip

Montreal, Que., July 15.—Facing a two-year sojourn in a tiny Hudson Strait settlement, Lake Harbor on Baffin Island, where she expects to be the only white woman, and where the entire white population will be nine including herself, Mrs. J. D. Soper of Ottawa, with her two-and-half-year-old son, accompanied her husband when he sailed to-day aboard the Mascopie for two years' exploration and research work in the far north.

Mr. Soper is an investigator for the Northwest Territories Department of the Dominion Government. Mrs. Soper is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Freeman of Wetsaskiwin, Alberta, and is a graduate nurse.

Mrs. Soper, who is blonde, blue-eyed and vivacious, looks forward with great interest to the adventure. The fact that her nearest neighbors will be 300 miles distant and the nearest doctor 500 miles away, does not worry her. She is healthy and her boy strong and sturdy.

The party expects to reach Lake Harbor in ten days. There will be no communication with the outside world until next July when the annual supply is shipped.

Refreshments will be served, and it is anticipated that there will be a large gathering of tennis enthusiasts and friends.

Silver Tea.—A silver tea will be held at the home of Mrs. Allan, 1433 Bay Street, Wednesday afternoon, from 2:30 to 5 o'clock. Mrs. Trail of Vancouver will give readings or answer questions. The affair is under the auspices of the Society For Psychic Research, and the public are cordially invited.

YOUR BABY and MINE

Mrs. Hupp will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies and children. A stamped and self-addressed envelope forwarded to this office will bring a personal reply.

CRYING FOR ATTENTION

MEANLY BAD HABIT. Habits are established by repetition of the same act. The simple habit of crying with a purpose is learned when baby discovers that each time he raises his voice in urgent plea, some one hurries to his side and does something for him.

As he grows older the baby has a growing appreciation of how pleasant this "something" can be. He does get tired of lying in one position. He does want new worlds to gaze upon, even though these worlds are merely the bedroom, the dining room or the living room. Babies cry, because this is their only mode of expression, but if we consistently attach some agreeable attention to the crying, it would be a pretty stupid baby who didn't learn to raise his voice with this end in view. That is a bad habit.

FORESTALL CRYING

Authorities agree that while baby should have every necessary attention and should not learn the habit of crying, it is wise to forestall his crying by giving him attention before he begins to cry, or by waiting until he stops yelling before rushing to his side. In this way he finds crying barren of pleasurable results and he looks eagerly for the attention when he is, what his mother terms, a "good" baby.

Mrs. J. L. McD., has worked this out successfully and so will give her the floor: "I wonder if mothers would be interested in knowing how I solved

WOMAN AGED 103 YEARS WON PRIZE AT FAIR

Canadian Press

Emerson, Man., July 15.—Born back in 1827, a decade before the union of Upper and Lower Canada, Mrs. Thomas Ballingall of Dominion City, Man., easily won the prize for "oldest person present" at Emerson's Dominion Day celebration. At the age of 103 years, she signed the register in a clear, firm hand and smiled broadly as she admiral a gift bouquet of flowers and engaged in lively conversation with other entrants.

Award to the eldest married couple at the celebration, on the border-line between Canada and United States, went to Mr. and Mrs. William DePew of Emerson, Man., aged eighty-eight and eighty-six, respectively, who recently celebrated their sixty-fourth wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. DePew were one year when the British North America Act linked Ontario, Quebec, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick into the new-formed Dominion of Canada.

FIRST GIRL PILOT TO EXECUTE DANGEROUS OUTSIDE LOOP

No wonder Dorothy Hester of Portland, Ore., is smiling. She has just become the world's most daring woman stunt flier by completing three outside loops in an airplane, one of the most dangerous of all aviation stunts and which few men have ever accomplished. The centrifugal force tends to hurt the pilot from the plane during an outside loop, as illustrated in the above sketch.

ALL MOTHERS CAN IMAGINE MY HAPPINESS

Mrs. Hupp Relates Remarkable Experience of Self and Little Daughter With Sargon

"I know that all mothers will be interested in my wonderful experience with Sargon," declared Mrs. G. W. Hupp, of 3508 S. 20th St., Omaha. "I believe Sargon saved me from a breakdown. I was told that I'd never be any better until I had my gall bladder removed."

MRS. G. W. HUPP

"For seven years I suffered almost constantly with pains in my right side. At times I'd have such sick headaches, I'd just have to go to bed. I never slept well and was so weak and run down. I couldn't attend to my housework or look after the children like I should. I was told that I'd never be any better until I had my gall bladder removed."

"After three bottles of this wonderful medicine, my gall bladder trouble was relieved and I haven't had a headache since. The pain in my side subsided. I began to sleep better, and I grew stronger every day. Now I feel like a different person and can do all my housework without tiring."

"Sargon did me so much good. I started giving it to my little girl, who never had been strong. Her appetite was finicky and her food didn't give her proper nourishment. She was so nervous she couldn't get the rest she needed, and they told her teacher at school not to give her physical exercises like the other children took, because she couldn't stand it."

"It just goes to show how good to see how wonderfully Sargon has benefited her. Her appetite is fine and she gets proper nourishment from good, wholesome food. She's not nervous now and sound, restful sleep has helped her gain strength and energy. Any mother can imagine how happy I am to have her well and strong again, and to see her play and romp with the other children without tiring like she used to."

"Sargon Pills are the gentlest and yet the most effective laxative I ever used. My little girl didn't mind taking them at all because they didn't upset her like other laxatives always have. I don't hesitate to recommend this splendid treatment to my friends or anyone who is sick or run down."

Sargon may be obtained in Victoria and Vancouver from all Owl Drug Stores, and in New Westminster from the New Drug Co. (Adv.)

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN

By SISTER MARY

One of the most satisfactory vegetables for home canning is the "baby" beet. Beets are one of the few vegetables that do not lose their flavor and natural sweetness if more than an hour's time elapses between the gathering and use. They are less perishable than almost any summer vegetable and for that reason the woman who buys her vegetables for canning runs less risk of spoilage after canning. The perfect freshness of peas and beans, corn and tomatoes is such an important factor in their keeping qualities after canning that it seldom pays to try to can these vegetables unless one has one's own garden.

Although winter beets are available, many women find them inconvenient and expensive to use on account of the long cooking required. The housekeeper who buys her fuel by feet or units finds that several hours spent in the cooking of a vegetable is quite an item.

The oven method of canning is particularly easy for beets. If you have a thermostatic controlled oven, the regulator is set to 275 degrees F. and the oven heated while packing the vegetables. An oven thermometer can, of course, be used, but frequent checking is necessary to insure satisfactory results.

Small beets about the size of a walnut require no dicing or slicing and are most attractive for serving. Larger ones should be cut in quarters, sliced or sliced ready for serving. More beets can be put in a can if they are cut and it saves cans and storage space.

Wash beets thoroughly, using a vegetable brush. Cut off tops, leaving about two inches of stem. Take care not to break the skin nor cut the long straight tap root. Drop into a kettle of boiling water and boil fifteen or twenty minutes. Dip into cold water to make easier to handle and slip off skins. Pack in hot sterilized jars, adding half a teaspoon of salt, half a teaspoon of sugar and one teaspoon of lemon juice to a pint jar. Add enough boiling water to fill jars to within an inch of the top, half seal and place in pre-heated oven. Leave for two hours. Remove from oven and completely seal. Invert for a few minutes to be sure the seal is perfect, then place upright and let stand until cool.

As soon as the jar is filled, place it in the oven and keep jars above two inches apart to allow for circulation of heat around each jar. Two racks may be used if the oven is large enough. Work fast and dip beets in cold water only long enough to slip skins, not long enough to cool them.

The oven method of canning has many advantages. There is no heavy lifting of water to fill a large container as is necessary for the hot water bath. There is no over-heated, steam-filled house during the processing period and there is less danger of burns in removing cans from over-boiling water. The oven is always convenient and requires no storing from season to season.

Ready and Waiting

For those people who have no eyes for the heating of hot water, it is well to always have a hot water heater and waiting. If the range is a coal one there should always be a kettle on the back of the range. A gas one, it will be found convenient to keep the kettle over the pilot light at all times when not in more active use. It will warm the water so that boiling is not a lengthy job.

Glove Fasteners

When the fastener pulls out of a glove it is never a success to try to get it back. The best way is to darn the hole and sew an ordinary dress snap near the old fastener. It will be secure and never noticed.

England and Australia Play To Draw In Third Test Match

THE SPORTS MIRROR

KING OF golf and king of the track. That's the honor resting to-day on Bobby Jones and Gallant Fox. These two sport notables, strange enough, both ably demonstrated their rights to these titles on Saturday, Jones winning the United States open championship, and Gallant Fox, the rich Arlington Park classic. It was Jones' third major victory this season and now he is the possessor of three of the world's major golfing crowns, the U.S. open and the British open and amateur. All that remains now for Bobby to make it a perfect year is to regain the U.S. amateur crown he lost last year to Harrison R. Johnston at Pebble Beach.

One spectator who took more than an unusual amount of interest in the play of Jones throughout the U.S. open was Bobby Cruikshank, the wee Scot. And well he might for Bobby's victory netted him just $100,000. Here's how he put it over. A few weeks previous to the start of the British amateur Cruikshank beat $125 with Lloyd's that Jones would win at a comfortable odds. He won and bet his winnings that Jones would lift the British open. Again he won.

Determined to make a good winning or nothing at all, Cruikshank bet his winnings amounting to $17,000 at odds of 6 to 1 that Jones would retain his U.S. open championship. He won and his $125 is now worth over $100,000. Whether or not the canny Scot will bet the works on Jones winning the U.S. amateur remains to be seen.

In shaking up his sixth straight three-year-old victory Gallant Fox added $74,750 to his earnings and boosted his total to $274,980, only $38,500 short of the fortune amassed by Zev in his meteoric career under the silks of Harry P. Sinden. In achieving another triumph over the best of the three-year-old division could muster, the brilliant son of Sir Galahad II jumped from seventh to second place.

Of the above group only Blue Larkspur and Display are still in competition, and the latter is in a temporary retirement but expected to return to the track for the Saratoga season. Blue Larkspur, the 1929 three-year-old titleholder, may furnish the battle for riches, however, before the season is over.

Defensive baseball which has appeared rather outmoded lately, came into its own in the major leagues last week. The clubs which could play good defensive ball when it was needed, came out far ahead of their rivals who slugged and were slugged.

Cincinnati, recovering in an amazing fashion from a week of successive defeats, showed the way to all rivals by winning seven straight games. No other team in either league gained so many victories or got through undefeated. But the Reds did not do anything unusual in the clinching line. They made seven hits, a mark which four National League teams surpassed, the Phillies leading with 104 blows, and scored only forty-one runs for third place in the league. The Reds' defense, however, was the key to their success. They allowed only twenty-five runs and fielded finely making only three errors.

The league-leading Brooklyn Robins put up a similar performance to take second place for the week, winning five games and losing one. They tallied thirty-seven times, and held their opponents to seventeen runs, the lowest total in either circuit. They also fielded well, although their five errors did not threaten the lead of the Boston Red Sox, who committed only two.

The New York Giants, tying for third with Pittsburgh at four games won and three lost, topped the league with fifty-seven runs, beating Philadelphia by five, and were second to the Phillies with thirty-nine hits. Philadelphia made the worst fielding record, committing twenty errors. Home run honors were divided between the Phillies and Brooklyn, with seven apiece.

Washington's six victories and two defeats took the lead in the American League, although the Senators lost it back again on Sunday to the Athletics. The Senators scored thirty-nine runs and had twenty-five tallied against them. They also led the circuit in fielding, making three errors.

Cleveland, second with five games won and two lost, led in scoring with forty-eight runs, but had to be content with third in hits as Detroit and Chicago pounded out 100 and ninety-one blows, respectively. The Chicago White Sox scored forty-two runs for second place and the Detroit Tigers forty-four. But these teams likewise hit the high marks in the error column, Chicago with sixteen bobbles and Detroit with fifteen.

Victoria Rugger Defeat Team From Dauntless, 5-0

A picked team of local rugger enthusiasts defeated H.M.S. Dauntless yesterday evening at the Canteen Grounds by 5-0. There was a good crowd of spectators.

Ello proved a scoreless deadlock by a lone run halfway through the last half. The fleet local forward broke free of the pack and dashed through the pack division for a try under the post. Campbell Forbes added the extra points with a fine kick. Commander Leonard Murray refereed.

DUCKWORTH CAUGHT Duckworth was caught at the wicket in the next over when he played back to A. Beckett. He hit four fours in his 33. A. P. F. Chapman, the English captain, was the next man in. He almost missed A. Beckett on his wicket, but the ball went for four. The fielders were making it hard for Hammond to cut off many of his hits which looked headed for the boundary. He was caught at 113 by Oldfield at the wicket when he played back to a sharp rising ball from McCabe which just touched the shoulder of his bat. He left when the score was 319 for seven.

Chapman, after the tea interval, continued to hit out. He missed Grinnett for two, for four to leg, then a two and last a single in one over. In the next over Chapman was completely beaten by one of Grinnett's off break. His 45 was a hard-hitting performance and included five fours.

Tate three caution to the winds and hit Grinnett for four. Trying it again Tate was caught by Jackson at Grinnett. England's score was 378.

Dick Tidesley, who joined up with Harold Larwood for the last wicket, had a short life and a merry one. He slammed Grinnett into the crowd, but failed to get under the next ball and was caught at short slip.

OPEN SECOND INNINGS England began their second innings shortly after 3 o'clock. Hobbs and Grinnett faced the bowling of Wall and A. Beckett. Scoring came by singles. Grinnett came on after ten minutes. He was caught by Jackson at Grinnett. Hobbs for the run, Bradman, running in, picked up brilliantly and made a perfect throw in. Hobbs was run out. Hobbs scored 19 and England's total was 24.

Hammond, when 35, played back to Grinnett, and the stroke was fatal as he swung the ball into Grinnett's hands behind the wicket. The English total stood at 74 for two wickets.

ERROR SAVES PRINCE Prince Dupleppah should have been run out after he had been in a few minutes. Sutcliffe called him, but a fielding error saved the prince.

Light was bad but appeals against it were made by the umpires. Dupleppah slashed across a tricky ball from Grinnett and was caught by Hornbrook in the slips. He made 11. With the score at 94 for three, England still needed 91 to save themselves from an innings defeat. There was 47 minutes left to play.

ELEANOR HOLM BREAKS RECORD IN LAKE POOL Unofficially Clips Over Eight Seconds From Canadian Backstroke Mark

New York Swimmers Well Received in Exhibition at Chateau Lake Louise

Chateau Lake Louise, Alta., July 15.—Eleanor Holm of New York yesterday unofficially broke the Canadian record of 3 minutes 20 seconds by doing the 220 yards backstroke style in 3 minutes 17 4-5 seconds.

Beneath the mighty glacier-capped peaks that surround Lake Louise, seven fair daughters of the United States yesterday exhibited their aquatic talents, each event being acclaimed with well-merited applause from the large number of spectators who lined the shores above the glass-walled open air swimming pool of the Lake Louise Chateau.

Georgia Coleman, the diving star of the Los Angeles Athletic Club, United States champion diver, member of the 1928 Olympic team and the only one of the galaxy of stars who is not from New York, gave an exhibition of diving that left the onlookers breathless with wonder.

JUNIOR A FAVORITE Through the whole category of known divers this star went without pause during the morning and afternoon exhibitions.

Agnes Geraghty electrified the crowd with her breaststroke swimming in the 100 yards, doing it in 1 minute 25 seconds.

Lisa Lindstrom, Metropolitan district champion, competed against Catherine Ames, American relay team swimmer, both finishing the 200 yards in 3 minutes 37 seconds.

WESTERN LEAGUE Des Moines 1-3; Pueblo 0-2; Oklahoma City 4; Wichita 0. Topka 3, St. Joseph 4. Omaha 18, Denver 9.

Victoria Bowlers Find Going Tough In B.C. Tourney

DUCKWORTH CAUGHT Duckworth was caught at the wicket in the next over when he played back to A. Beckett. He hit four fours in his 33. A. P. F. Chapman, the English captain, was the next man in. He almost missed A. Beckett on his wicket, but the ball went for four. The fielders were making it hard for Hammond to cut off many of his hits which looked headed for the boundary. He was caught at 113 by Oldfield at the wicket when he played back to a sharp rising ball from McCabe which just touched the shoulder of his bat. He left when the score was 319 for seven.

Chapman, after the tea interval, continued to hit out. He missed Grinnett for two, for four to leg, then a two and last a single in one over. In the next over Chapman was completely beaten by one of Grinnett's off break. His 45 was a hard-hitting performance and included five fours.

Tate three caution to the winds and hit Grinnett for four. Trying it again Tate was caught by Jackson at Grinnett. England's score was 378.

Dick Tidesley, who joined up with Harold Larwood for the last wicket, had a short life and a merry one. He slammed Grinnett into the crowd, but failed to get under the next ball and was caught at short slip.

OPEN SECOND INNINGS England began their second innings shortly after 3 o'clock. Hobbs and Grinnett faced the bowling of Wall and A. Beckett. Scoring came by singles. Grinnett came on after ten minutes. He was caught by Jackson at Grinnett. Hobbs for the run, Bradman, running in, picked up brilliantly and made a perfect throw in. Hobbs was run out. Hobbs scored 19 and England's total was 24.

Hammond, when 35, played back to Grinnett, and the stroke was fatal as he swung the ball into Grinnett's hands behind the wicket. The English total stood at 74 for two wickets.

ERROR SAVES PRINCE Prince Dupleppah should have been run out after he had been in a few minutes. Sutcliffe called him, but a fielding error saved the prince.

Light was bad but appeals against it were made by the umpires. Dupleppah slashed across a tricky ball from Grinnett and was caught by Hornbrook in the slips. He made 11. With the score at 94 for three, England still needed 91 to save themselves from an innings defeat. There was 47 minutes left to play.

ELEANOR HOLM BREAKS RECORD IN LAKE POOL Unofficially Clips Over Eight Seconds From Canadian Backstroke Mark

New York Swimmers Well Received in Exhibition at Chateau Lake Louise

Chateau Lake Louise, Alta., July 15.—Eleanor Holm of New York yesterday unofficially broke the Canadian record of 3 minutes 20 seconds by doing the 220 yards backstroke style in 3 minutes 17 4-5 seconds.

Beneath the mighty glacier-capped peaks that surround Lake Louise, seven fair daughters of the United States yesterday exhibited their aquatic talents, each event being acclaimed with well-merited applause from the large number of spectators who lined the shores above the glass-walled open air swimming pool of the Lake Louise Chateau.

Georgia Coleman, the diving star of the Los Angeles Athletic Club, United States champion diver, member of the 1928 Olympic team and the only one of the galaxy of stars who is not from New York, gave an exhibition of diving that left the onlookers breathless with wonder.

JUNIOR A FAVORITE Through the whole category of known divers this star went without pause during the morning and afternoon exhibitions.

Agnes Geraghty electrified the crowd with her breaststroke swimming in the 100 yards, doing it in 1 minute 25 seconds.

Lisa Lindstrom, Metropolitan district champion, competed against Catherine Ames, American relay team swimmer, both finishing the 200 yards in 3 minutes 37 seconds.

Weinstein Flashes Form To Dispose of H. Rayment, 6-3, 6-0

Californian Then Teams With Loser to Win in Doubles; Edwards and Kirkbride Also Advance; Favorites Come Through in Clay Court Tournery; Hocking and Cunningham Meet Jones and Schwengers in Feature Match on To-day's Card.

Good progress in all events marked yesterday's play in the city clay court tennis championships at the Kingston Street Tennis Club. All events are well advanced and a programme of twenty matches each day will be the order from now until Saturday when the finals are to be played.

There were no upsets yesterday, although the better-known players were in some cases extended but for the most part had rather an easy day.

Irving Weinstein, visiting Californian player, took part in two matches. He appeared in a men's doubles with Hugo Rayment, and then played a single, and won both matches. Partnered with Rayment in the doubles, he won from Cecil Bird and Campbell Forbes, who after a shaky start against the more experienced players, settled down and gave the winners a real battle. The scores were 6-0, 7-5. Weinstein's beautiful control was in evidence and his volleying was excellent. His second match was against Martin Forbes, and after dropping three games early in the first set he reeled off enough games to win both sets without the loss of further games. Rayment played well and made many fine shots, but Weinstein's game based on steadiness and enough punch to hustle opponents, did not allow Rayment to use many shots that could count for points.

CHAMPION WINS John Edwards, one of the favored for the men's titles, had one single against H. A. Phillips, who put up a good fight against the Victoria Club champion. Edwards took the first set at 6-1, but ran into more opposition in the second, which ended at 6-4.

Ronny Kirkbride had his service working well against Roland Christy, losing only three games in the two sets.

Tim Martin and George Phillips participated in one of the best singles of the day. Both players were hitting their shots well and some long rallies took place before Martin got home in the second set at 7-5. The winner, staved off a belated rally in the second set when Phillips made a last effort, and some good play was witnessed. The scores were 6-3, 7-6.

Roland Ferris, Kingston Street, defeated Walter Crossley in a three-set match. Ferris took the first and third sets to win the match.

Mrs. Edwards, Helen Campbell, Mona Miller, Vida Rither, Doreen Swaine and Miss Kitchin, Nanaimo, won the matches played in the women's singles. Mrs. Edwards defeated Eleanor Cameron, one of the best club's younger players. Helen Campbell, newly-crowned junior champion of the province, won from Mrs. David Jones, and Vida Rither defeated Mrs. Baird. Doreen Swaine defeated Mrs. Jones, with the loss of six games. Mona Miller encountered stiff opposition from Mrs. Barker, Willows, and only won by a narrow margin. The scores were 6-3, 6-0.

Miss Kitchin and Beale Richards had one of the longest matches of the day, and Miss Kitchin finally emerged as the victor. The scores were 6-3, 6-4.

In the women's doubles, Mrs. T. H. Leeming and Mrs. W. P. Unsworth defeated Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Baird in a long drawn-out match that was really the longest of the day. The Victoria players won 7-5, 6-7, 6-4.

Tim Martin and Jack Parker met and defeated Ian Phillips and David Bird in an intense home town's doubles play for outside rinks will commence Wednesday afternoon.

They eliminated Ben Cullen of Victoria in the initial round, 25 to 5. Tuesday's play includes doubles in Tisdall and Mercer trophy events. All day, with singles at night. Nabob Cup play for outside rinks will commence Wednesday afternoon.

Victory players failed to produce a rink strong enough to reach the third round. Oldtimers were disappointed in the veteran, Tom McCosh, of the C.P.B. Victoria, go down to defeat. He had his crack third man, Jim Ray, side, with him, but lost out in both the Spencer and Bowser trophy events.

McCosh, "sixty-eight years young," has been a leader in tournament bowling for many years, his career on the greens stretching over half a century. He has helped win practically every trophy existing in the B.C.L.B.A.

Harry Wright of Victoria played a beautiful game, to eliminate Joe Willson of Burnaby, 20 to 4, only to go down to defeat at the hands of Dave Evans of Nanaimo.

E. G. Sherwood, another capital city competitor, captured his first match against Peter Watt of North Vancouver, 18 to 9, and then turned in his second win against Chisholm of Terminal, 17 to 10. It took the veteran Charlie Herman of Ladner, however, to knock out the Victoria skipper, 19 to 11.

CALIFORNIANS LOSE California, with the Westminster rink, on which was A. E. Leckie of Pasadena Club, and Burrell of the same club, who is first match against Morley (Nanaimo), 23 to 8, but lost out to Wright of Terminal, 19 to 22.

Bob Daniels of Oakridge took the measure of Lyons of Revelstoke, 18 to 7, this being a revenge match, for Lyons had beaten Daniels in California last spring. Daniels also advanced in the next round, defeating McLaren at Calgary, 22 to 4, to enter the eighth.

Spencer and Bowser rink play for teams occupied all day, singles, 152 games, being run off all evening. The defeat of J. F. Morley, singles champion of 1929, in the first round, was the big feature of the singles play.

He was beaten by J. Cleland, C.P.N., 8 to 15.

KEEN COMPETITION Keen competition marked the play in general. The greens were in first-class shape and the competitions were played under the bluest of skies. The players were getting good bias and keeping close to the jack. Gallagher of Medicine Hat and his third man, provided sensational bow-

"Old Krabby says you've got to be very careful in playing these shots indoors. I see what he means now. He surely took great pains with that one."

ELKS PLAY POORLY TO LOSE GAME

Boot Ball Around to Drop 12 to 7 Decision to Last Place Eagles

Defeat Puts Elks Into Second Place; Jack Morgan Hits Home Run

Booting the ball all over the lot, the Elks, who up until yesterday evening were tied with the Sons of Canada for the leadership of the Senior Amateur League, were taken for a ride by the lowly Eagles at the Royal Athletic Park yesterday evening, by a score of 12-7. The defeat dropped the Elks back into second place, half a game behind the Sons.

During the evening the Elks contributed eight "boners," the majority of them coming at critical times with runners on the base. The audience played poor ball turning in one of the poorest exhibitions this season.

On the other hand the Eagles played the best ball they have shown since the league started and deserved their win.

MOBMAN HITS HOMER The Elks got away to a two-run lead in the first inning when Jack Morgan lifted the ball out of the lot with Herb Cummins occupying the initial sack. However, in the second frame, the Eagles went on a scoring spree and three hits coupled with a like number of errors gave them six runs.

At this stage Charlie Burr, a new arrival in the Elks' camp, was replaced on the mound by Wade Steele who halted the rally with two men away and a runner on second and third.

Steele kept the Elks' check for four innings, while the Eagles tried to tie the count, by scoring two runs in the third and one in each of the fourth and fifth frames.

In the seventh and eighth, the Eagles scored up the game by shoring four runners home in the former inning and two in the eighth. The Elks scored their final run in the last inning when Roy Robinson crashed out a three base hit with Dunn on first.

Both teams collected a total of fifteen hits, while Wade Steele led the individual hitters with three out of five.

In the match between the visiting women and Victoria the former team skipped by Mrs. Brown of the Point Grey Club won the Tolmie Cup. A special event for teams of three will be inaugurated this year commencing on Wednesday, August 6, on the Hampton Road green. It will be open to visitors arriving too late for Monday's schedule and all players who suffer defeat or default in the play of the two first days. Veck Declares Hornsby Will Be Ready August 1

Chicago, July 15.—President William Veck has taken a final verbal smash at the prophets who have been saying Rogers Hornsby has played his last baseball for the Cubs.

"It is improbable Hornsby will be available for regular service when he reports to Manager McCarthy a week from Thursday," Veck said yesterday evening. "But we expect him to take his old job at second base by August. This ought to end rumors his days with the Cubs are over."

Hornsby returned to Chicago yesterday and planned a workout at Wrigley field to-day. He will join his mates when they return from Philadelphia, July 24.

JOKERS WIN FIRST GAME

Defeat Moore and Whittington 11 to 3 in Play-off For Westholm Softball Title

Jokers pounded out an 11-3 win over Moore and Whittington to become one up in the two-out-of-three games series for championship honors in the Westholm Softball League yesterday evening at Victoria West Park. The first half champions were never headed after the first inning and advanced to a decisive victory behind the fine pitching of Lloyd Jones, who held the lumbermen scoreless from the first inning to the last in as masterly an exhibition of mound work as the league has seen all season.

Rallies in the fourth, fifth and seventh innings accounted for all the Jokers' runs, with Ivan Sweeney, Youson and Banks doing the heavy work with the willow. Sweeney hit for the circuit in the fifth to climax a five-run inning.

SECOND GAME TO-MORROW

The second game will be played to-morrow evening at 6:45 o'clock at the Victoria West Park with Paces and Brown officiating. The Jokers can clinch the title and the right to meet the winners of the city game for the championship of Victoria, while Moore and Whittington will be fighting to force the issue to the third game.

Jokers . . . 000000402—11

The teams follow:
Jokers—Wagland, Munro, Tolley, Banks, Smith, Carmichael, Sweeney, Wallace and Jones.

The Chicago White Sox may be struggling along in the second division of the American League, but they still have the profitable faculty of doing the unusual to pep up an otherwise drab ball game.

This advantage was soon wiped out by a savage attack with the result the teams went into the last half of the ninth tied at nine all. With two out and Reynolds perched on third, Watwood came through with a hit and the game was over.

It took the Athletics eleven innings to defeat the St. Louis Browns, but they finally managed to clinch out a 9 to 7 decision and increase their lead in the junior circuit to two full games. Washington fell before the up-coming Detroit Tigers, 8 to 4.

OVER THE WALL

Babe Herman, hard-hitting Brooklynite, took advantage of the lull in the National League yesterday to move into a tie for second place with Chuck Klein in baseball's Big Six.

Both Klein and O'Doul, the leader, were idle, while Herman pounded out two hits in five times at bat to lock one point on to his batting average. That one point gave him an average of .366.

The American League half of the season were in action, but Simmons and Ruth lost ground, while Rice failed to move up or down. Simmons got one hit against St. Louis pitching and lost four points, falling to .387, while the Babe got one hit in a double-header and dropped from .374 to .367. Rice's two safes in five times at bat left his average unchanged.

FRITZ MERCUR IS GIVEN SCARE

Pressed to Win From Karl Hodge in Opening of U.S. Clay Court Championship

Kansas City, July 15.—No duck horses appeared yesterday in the opening of play for the 1930 national clay court tennis championship, and pairings for the second round singles to-day found all seeded players in competition.

Completion of the first round felt the forecast of a possible champion no matter for those who progressed on form, ranking and record.

Those who favored Fritz Mercur, Harrisburg, Penn., were less sure of their choice after Karl Hodge, St. Louis, forced the number six national ranking star and co-holder of the tournament doubles title to two deuced sets, before Mercur, seeded No. 1, won, 7-5, 9-7.

The lanky Frank Shields, New York, did not show as expected against Teddy Agman, St. Louis, who he defeated, 6-4, 6-4, in a preliminary, but appeared in fine fettle later when he eliminated Ellis Klingsman, Chicago, in a first round tussle, 6-3, 6-0.

Willbur F. Coon Jr., Kansas City, seeded No. 2, defeated C. Speed, Independence, Kas., and gained many more backers than already were pulling for a title for the boy star, who has played much in Europe.

ONCE PLAYED IN
CAPITOL FEATURE

"Strictly Unconventional," an all-talking screen version of W. Somerset Maugham's play, "The Circle," opened last evening at the Capitol Theatre, and proved itself to be even more entertaining as a cinema product than when it served as the co-starring vehicle for the late John Drew and Mrs. Leslie Carter.

No small share of this somewhat astonishing feat is due to the immensely interesting performance of a clever cast which includes the ever-to-be-remembered Lewis Stone as Olive Champion-Cheney; Allison Skipworth as Lady Kitty; Ernest Torrence as the swarthy-tailed and monocled Lord Porteous; Catherine Dale Owen as Elizabeth; Tyrell Davis as her husband, Arnold Champion-Cheney who ignores his wife's charms for the attractions of antique furniture; Paul Cavanagh, who attempts to make up for this error; and Mary Forbes as Mrs. Shenstone whose efforts to patch up the breach between Arnold and Elizabeth, only serve to make the situation more complicated.

"When the cat's away, the mice will play" is the theme of "Why Leave Home," the first musical comedy in talking history, which is playing at the Playhouse Theatre this week.

Its flood of hilarious situations is caused by the efforts of three indignant wives to teach their husbands a lesson when the latter "step out." College boys and chorus girls are drawn into the various complications, with side-splitting results, and a number of snappy song hits add to the film's entertainment qualities.

"THE DIVORCEE" AT
DOMINION THEATRE

The so-called divorce problem has had many expositions at the hands of dramatists and scenarists, but perhaps never before from the amazing standpoint of "The Divorcee," Norma Shearer's new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer talking vehicle, which opened last evening at the Dominion Theatre.

Remaining distinctly human, with no tinge of the academic, the picture casts a new light on modern divorce, and, incidentally, affords Miss Shearer one of the most startling, as well as the most charming roles of her career.

A University of Missouri scientist has developed a nutritive fluid to be deposited in river beds to prolong the lives of young clams, the shells of which are used for buttons when they are grown.

PREMIER KING TO-DAY

WELCOMED IN WINNIPEG

DOLLAR FOR DOLLAR

For two hours Mr. King dealt with unemployment, the budget and problems of representation at the Imperial Conference to be held in London.

Again he reiterated the Federal administration's policy in dealing with the unemployed. When requested, he said the Federal Government was prepared to assist the provinces "dollar for dollar" in the relief of unemployment.

Briefly Mr. King dealt with the May budget of Hon. Charles A. Dunning,

Minister of Finance and a candidate in the constituency of Regina. Great Britain rejoiced at the gesture of goodwill contained in the budget, which the Prime Minister declared would increase trade with the United Kingdom and provide markets for the produce of Canada.

Wider markets offered one solution for the unemployment situation facing Western Canada, and the development of trade in Great Britain would secure a market for Canadian wheat.

SPEAKER CHEERED

The meeting was presided over by

P. M. Anderson, president of the Regina-Federal Liberal Association. The entrance of the speakers was greeted with a burst of cheering.

"O Canada" was sung, and then the speakers were asked to speak, but there was a disturbance.

Mr. Anderson advanced to the edge of the platform and said: "When 'O

Canada' was sung I noticed some in the audience did not rise. That is the affair, but seven thousand people have come here to-night to hear these speakers, and we're not going to have a small group who have forgotten their sense of decency break up the meeting."

MANY HEAR BY RADIO

"I do not believe it has been my privilege to meet a finer audience than this to-night," said Premier King at the outset of his speech.

He was sorry not to be able to address other meetings in Saskatchewan,

but the radio had carried his message

TELLS OF LIFE IN PEACE RIVER AND CARIBOO COUNTRY

T. W. Hall Describes Experiences in North Country at Kiwanian Luncheon

Praises Energy and Initiative of Inhabitants and Recommends Cariboo Road Trip

"Nature has been most kind to the Peace River country," stated T. W. Hall, inspector of schools for the Cariboo and Peace River districts, in an interesting address before members of the Victoria Kiwanis Club at a luncheon meeting to-day in the Empress Hotel.

Mr. Hall, who was principal of George Jay School for many years prior to taking up his new duties in northern B.C., had a number of amusing anecdotes to tell about the north country and its inhabitants. He strongly urged his hearers to make a trip up the Cariboo Road so that they might become better acquainted with the potentialities of the province.

"You can't think in a small way up there," said the speaker, after describing the grandeur of the northland. "That wonderful country has the effect of wiping all petty worries from your mind," he continued, after telling his hearers that if it had not been for the splendid display of a school teacher, he would often have felt shouting "Whoopie" at the top of his voice.

He had nothing but praise for the pioneers of the Peace River who have done so much to open up their land during the last decade. Fifteen years ago there was not a single school in the entire country but to-day there were no less than forty, many of them of considerable size. Much credit was due to the young teachers from the Victoria and Vancouver Normal schools who ventured a thousand miles from their homes at the age of eighteen or nineteen and carried on their work under difficult conditions without a complaint. The inhabitants of the River "a fine aggressive, law-abiding lot who realize the necessity of educating their families."

Mr. Hall said he had visited the country during the most unfavorable period of the year, January and February, but the temperature had averaged 18 degrees above zero and general climatic conditions were far better than in many other parts of Canada. The land was very fertile, he said, and the wheat yield was about thirty bushels to the acre, or about twice as high as the average for the rest of Canada.

He also described the Cariboo country at some length and spoke of the tradition surrounding the old Cariboo road as relic of the wild days in '58. The 700-mile trip from Vancouver to Barkerville was perfectly safe for motorists, and extraordinary interesting. Accommodation along the route was good, and the country, literally leamed with game of all kind and the rivers well stocked with fish.

He related an amusing story of reading an inscription on a rock by the road side "Lord Macintyre and valet 18-- and beneath in more recent letters, "Bill Jones and valet."

The country was full of interesting characters and many of the old place names were still working the bare near Barkerville.

The president, H. G. Stevens, announced that the luncheon meeting held at the Empress Hotel on Monday night would be held at the Oak Bay golf links at 11 o'clock sharp and that there would be a special putting competition for the members afterwards.

Several songs were sung during the meeting, including the popular, "Come to Victoria."

Plumbing Law To Go Before Joint Parley

With representatives of five interested organizations attending to discuss contentious clauses, the works committee of the city council to-morrow afternoon will review the city's proposed plumbing by-law with a view to presenting a final draft of the regulations to the council for passage.

Objections to the proposed by-law have been raised in many quarters since it was first announced. Clauses providing for a board of examiners to pass on the efficiency of those applying for licenses and in respect of work done by unlicensed persons are understood to be the chief points of contention.

The Chamber of Commerce, the Real Estate Board, Victoria Sanitary, Heating and Plumbing Engineers, the Union of Plumbers and Steamfitters, the Victoria Builders' Exchange and Haunell and Shaw, solicitors for several hardware firms, will be represented at the meeting, which starts at 2 o'clock, with Alderman J. L. Mara, Robert Smith and John Worthington attending.

PLANTAGENET SCHOOL PLAN IS DEFEATED

Reconstitution of Consolidated School Area Not to Be Undertaken

Special to The Times

Cobble Hill, July 15.—Reconstitution of Plantagenet Consolidated School district was defeated yesterday evening, when annual meetings of Cobble Hill, Bench, Mill Bay and Sylvania school districts divided two and two on the merits of the plan. Plantagenet Consolidated school district was dissolved on June 30 after a court ruling that it had been created incorrectly.

Cobble Hill and Mill Bay recorded approval of consolidation with either more or more districts nearby, but Sylvania and Bench were opposed to the proposal. All meetings were well attended.

The votes were as follows: Cobble Hill, for consolidation, 38; against, 6; Bench, for consolidation, 27; against, 24; Sylvania, for consolidation, 24; against, 34.

The meeting at Cobble Hill speedily approved consolidation and twenty of those present proceeded to Mill Bay, where they found a heated debate in progress. Later in the evening a party arrived from Sylvania, where rejection of consolidation had been promptly effected.

HEATED MEETING

T. P. Barry, chairman at Mill Bay, had difficulty in getting the meeting to attend to the statutory business, opponents of consolidation persisting in demanding adjournment. Approval of consolidation having been voted by a narrow margin, many of the audience, with the visitors from Cobble Hill and Sylvania, went to Bench school, where a most interesting and heated debate on the case which arose out of an alleged altercation between the accused and Constable R. Woolcock, who apprehended him for driving to the common danger. It was stated the accused struck the constable.

Robertson claimed the constable had used foul language when telling him to produce his driver's license. More-over the officer, who was in plain clothes, had not produced his badge until afterwards the accused claimed the constable had denied using foul language and had asserted he showed the badge when asking for the driver's license.

"If I thought for a moment the officer had used language of that sort I would not have been so polite," said the magistrate, commenting, ruling for a conviction.

W. J. Robertson Guilty of Striking Police Officer, Court Rules

Found guilty on a charge of assaulting an officer in the execution of his duty, William J. Robertson was fined $25 in City Police Court this morning.

Magistrate George Jay gave a lengthy judgment on the case which arose out of an alleged altercation between the accused and Constable R. Woolcock, who apprehended him for driving to the common danger. It was stated the accused struck the constable.

Robertson claimed the constable had used foul language when telling him to produce his driver's license. More-over the officer, who was in plain clothes, had not produced his badge until afterwards the accused claimed the constable had denied using foul language and had asserted he showed the badge when asking for the driver's license.

SCHOOL COSTS SHOW INCREASE AT SHAWNIGAN

Shawnigan Lake, July 15.—The annual public school meeting was held on Saturday evening in the school room, seventeen ratepayers attending. S. J. Heald, secretary-treasurer, opened the meeting and George Gibson was chosen chairman. The trustees reported that ninety children had been registered during the school year. The highest attendance was sixty-nine and the lowest sixty-one.

The inspector's report showed consistent progress by the scholars. The medical health officer reported the health of the children good, the school accommodation adequate and the school conditions good. The Cowichan health centre nurse had been beneficial, and will be renewed. Principal Philip Kettle and Miss Isabelle Pike, teacher of division 2, had resigned.

The financial statement disclosed a considerable increase in the cost of education. The amount spent during the year was $1,922.24, and the trustees have a balance in hand of $949.32.

The estimated expenses for the ensuing year were placed at $2,000, and the meeting approved this amount. The assessment voted was $1,300, the trustees being authorized to draw on the bank balance for the difference.

It was decided to install a pipelined furnace in the main school.

Division of two trustees took place. Mrs. C. Dymock was elected to fill the resignation of Mr. A. Wyldie, and S. J. Heald was re-elected to serve the three-year term. Mrs. Heald has served continuously for eleven years, and is now entering on his fifth term.

The whole of the time he has acted as secretary.

E. M. Walbank was elected auditor. A vote of thanks was extended to Mrs. Wyldie for her services as trustee, and the meeting passed a motion of condolence with Mrs. P. G. Twist in the death of her husband, who had been auditor for several years.

The trustees reported the boundaries of the school district had been extended to take in the whole of Shawnigan Lake suburban lots and additional acreage. This had become necessary, owing to the increasing costs of the school. The area added amounted to about forty per cent of the whole. A vote of thanks was extended to the chairman as the meeting adjourned.

AUTO CLUBS OF SOUTH DIVERT CARS THIS WAY

Canadian Route Well Advertised, Says H. C. Follett of Auto Club of S. California

Less Road Travel on Coast This Season Owing to Tight Money

"British Columbia is getting plenty of advertising in California and the Automobile Club of Southern California is assisting in diverting automobile travel this way by its literature and maps, which route the tourist through from San Diego, to Victoria and Vancouver over the Pacific Highway," said Horace C. Follett, district manager of the Ingewood office of the Automobile Club of Southern California, who arrived at the Dominion Hotel to-day with Mrs. Follett from the south.

Victoria and Vancouver Island, by reason of the splendid ferry service operating to the mainland, are getting a full share of the travel volume.

Lighter Volume

Asked about motor traffic, Mr. Follett gave his opinion that travel on the coast this year is considerably less than was the case last season.

"We are not getting the same number inquiries. Money is tighter and is having the effect of curtailing travel," he said.

It is probable that the latter part of the season may see an improvement, but the final check-up will see a marked decrease in motor tourist travel this year, according to the Southern California travel expert.

EXCELLENT ROADS

From San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Follett traveled over the Redwood Highway to Grant's Pass, and they found the roads in excellent shape.

They came across the Straits from Seattle by the motorist this morning, and plan to leave by the Olympic tomorrow for Bellingham, en route to Vancouver.

Leaving their car at the Terminal City they plan to make a rail excursion into the Canadian Rockies, and will visit Lake Louise and Banff. On their return to the coast from the mountains they will motor to Ingewood.

What Happens to Men Who Trade Old Wives for New?—Does a Man Lessen His Wife's Affection For Him as He Increases His Business Acumen?

DEAR MISS DIX—I am writing to you in the hope that other men will read this and profit by my experience. Here is my story: I became acquainted with a married woman through business dealings and she got to be good friends. She told me how her husband mistreated her and didn't provide for her, and how different he was from me, and I felt sorry for her, and flattered, and fell in love with her. She sued for divorce and her husband seemed glad to give it to her. He said she had a bad temper and had never made a home for him, and wasted all he made and ran around with other men, but of course I didn't believe it.

I was married to a woman who had always been a good wife to me. She had worked hard to help me get a start and had been sweet and kind and good and unselfish and had made me a fine home. And I had lovely children. But I was so infatuated with this woman that I thought I was tired of my wife and begged her to give me a divorce.

She refused for a long time, but finally she told me that she had held me against my wishes long enough, thinking I might come to my senses, and she was so humiliated at the life I was living that she had determined to let me go.

I had already furnished an apartment for this other woman and bought her a car and everything, and as soon as I got the divorce we were married, but we hadn't been married any time before she changed completely.

She had always had a sweet disposition, never showed any signs of a temper and everything I said and did was all right, so I thought life with her would be perfect. But now she is a perfect shrew and has never a pleasant word for me. I have given her fifteen-year-old girl advantages I never gave my own daughter, and now this child talks to me as if I was a dog.

My wife goes out at night to parties and dances with other men and when I object to it she says: "Well, you've got a lot of room to say anything to me after the way you cheated on your wife." I told her I didn't believe she cared anything for me, only for what I could give her and she replied: "Well, it certainly has taken you a long time to find that out, and what are you going to do about it? I won't be as easy to get rid of as your first wife and if you try to do anything about it I've got the evidence that before we were married we took trips together to several different States, and the Mann Act makes that a rather unpleasant experience for the man."

And there I am, Miss Dix, and I'd crawl on my knees and hands back to my first wife and beg her to forgive me and take me back if only I could get away from this woman. Why is it that it takes an awful lot to make a mistake we are making, and we can't see it until it is too late? Why do we think that we are going to escape the fate of others? I am forty years old and the thought of having to live with this other woman the balance of my life drives me mad. What can I do? A MISERABLE SINNER.

ANSWER—I fear that you will have to bear the fate that you have brought upon yourself, but, like you, I hope that your sufferings will be a warning to other middle-aged men who are thinking of swapping off a faithful old wife for a new one.

For your experience is not an uncommon one. I get innumerable letters from men who tell me the same tale. They are married to good women with whom they have no real fault to find. Wives who have fought the hard battle of the poor young couple with them, shoulder to shoulder. Wives whom they know to be faithful and devoted and loyal and possessed of every good quality, but they fight it over. They have got on Easy Street and there is nothing in their daily lives to keep them pepped up and full of interest.

So life begins to be dull and monotonous. Their wives take them for granted, and they begin to be restless and to sigh for a little adventure. Then comes along a clever and conscienceless woman who casts an eye over their bank account and begins to think that it is easier to work a bored, middle-aged man than it is to work a typewriter or work behind a counter.

There are scores of these alleged business women whose real business is the breaking up of homes and robbing a wife of her husband and children of their father. Every business man comes continually in contact with them, and if the man is weak and vain and amorous it is as easy to take him away from his family as it is to take candy away from a baby.

Why men who are shrewd enough to pile up a fortune have not sense enough to see through the arts and wiles of these women is one of the inexplicable mysteries of life. Why a man deludes himself into believing that a woman who lacks principle and morality, and who is selfish and greedy enough to take what she wants, no matter what it costs another woman in heartbreak and tears, will be honorable and faithful to him, and tender and sympathetic, no one can explain.

But they do, and nine times out of ten these men find that they have been married just for their money and that these women care nothing for them. Their own brief infatuation dies out, and they would give their lives to undo what they have done and be back with the old wives whose affection for them has been put to the test and proved.

Trading in old wives for new is generally a losing bargain for the men. DOROTHY DIX.

DEAR MISS DIX—I am a young man about to graduate from college. The profession I have chosen sometimes discourages me in one respect, and that is the way I see other men being slaves to their business, working long hours or all the year round with few holidays. After your business is well established you cannot leave it to some one else because your services are indispensable and I fear if I enter this profession I will lose friends and perhaps remain a bachelor. For if I should get married I might not be able to be at home much or take my wife out often. If a man is a slave to his business, what does a woman want with such a husband? GEORGE.

ANSWER—Well, George, I think that most women would rather that their husbands be slaves to their businesses and make enough money to live on comfortably than of the sort who do not let their business interfere with their pleasure, and who expect their wives to help support the family.

I grant you that the man who makes a success of his business or profession has very little time in which to love and invite his soul. He has to hustle to keep up with the other go-getters, but you are looking at this matter from the wrong standpoint. You are thinking of work as drudgery, whereas it is fun. There is no game as exciting as making money; no adventure more full of thrills than planning new business campaigns, in discovering new and better ways of doing things, in opening up new vistas of trade.

Do you think that the engineer is bored when he looks at the sky-scraper that he is putting up? Do you think the lawyer dreads to go into court to argue a big case? Do you think the surgeon wishes he were going fishing when he stands with the knife in his hand about to perform an operation that will save a life?

Far from it, son. Work is the only thing that makes life worth while. Look how alive, how interested, how young the people are who work hard, and see how flabby and old and stupid those who don't work look. DOROTHY DIX.

DEAR MISS DIX—I have been married a year and a half and although I love my husband dearly we quarrel continually. We can be in the best of humor and the next moment something is brought up that is maybe months old, and then we are in a fight that ends in my crying. I work every day at my job and have a fine place I have held for five years, but it is hard work, and when I come home I have to do my housework, too. Why do we quarrel and what should I do, try to go on, or quit? YOUNG WIFE.

ANSWER—Quit your job or else go to boarding. You are trying to do too much work. You are overstrained and a lot of your temper is nerves. Every woman knows what it is to be so tired that everything that anybody says to her irritates her.

I do not believe that any woman who works outside the home should do her own cooking. DOROTHY DIX.
